Dressing the Chicken

I remember growing up and we had several chickens, and I liked to dress the chickens. I always thought, why wouldn't we call it undressing the chickens? Here we go, pull the heads and they went flopping around in our yard until it stopped, why? It's dead! Without the head the chicken is dead.

Jesus is the head of His church and without the Head the church is dead. Colossians 1:18 And He is the head of the body, the church who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence.

May we always put Him first place in our lives.

Love you all. Gary

Buzzards, Bats, and Bumblebees

If you put a buzzard in a pen six or eight feet square and entirely open at the top, the bird, in spite of his ability to fly, will be an absolute prisoner. The reason is that a buzzard always begins a flight from the ground with a run of ten or twelve feet. Without space to run, as is his habit, he will not even attempt to fly, but will remain a prisoner for life in a small jail with no top.

The ordinary bat that flies around at night, a remarkably nimble creature in the air, cannot take off from a level place. If it is placed on the floor or flat ground, all it can do is shuffle about helplessly and, no doubt, painfully, until it reaches some slight elevation from which it can throw itself into the air. Then, at once, it takes off like a flash.

A bumblebee, if dropped into an open tumbler will be there until it dies unless it is taken out. It never sees the means of escape at the top, but persists in trying to find some way out through the sides near the bottom. It will seek a way where none exists, until it completely destroys itself.

In many ways, there are lots of people like the buzzard, the bat and the bumblebee. They are struggling about with all their problems and frustrations, not realizing that if they look up, they'll find the answer.
